Look a' here, Liz - a lis - ten to me; You aint the gal you promised to be; -
 Look a' here, Liz - a take off those rings; Dig in that trunk, gal; hand me those things;

Did - n't you say - you al - ways would be true, ——— oo, oo, oo, oo? ———
 I'm goin' to take - the clothes I paid for, too, ——— oo, oo, oo, oo! ———

p

You went a driv - ing with Mis - ter Brown; Now I'm the laugh - ing stock of the town;
 Cough up that old gold watch, and de chain; Wants that umbrel - la cause it might rain;

Folks say that I was cra - zy to trust you, ——— oo, oo, oo, oo, ———
 Ask Mis - ter Brown to fix you up all new, ——— oo, oo, oo, oo, ———

Throw up my hands, babe, I'se goin' to go, Can't stand the blow I loved you so;
 Rent time is here, babe, landlord today, I'll be a-way Who's goin' to pay?

I was the good - thing while I had the dough Now I must whis - per low:
 Pr - 'aps Mis - ter Brown will If he's a jay, Oncemore to you I say:

CHORUS. p - f

"Good-bye E - li - za Jane I'm gwine - a for to leave you! well, you'll know, when I go, that I was the fel-low with the "dough, dough, dough"; so

I'm gwine for to sing a lit-tle song, And travel a-long, just travel a-long;

Wish you good-day, Babe; I'm on my way; "Goodbye, E - li - za Jane."
 Jane.
